

Do not weaken the Wisconsin "do not call" list. There are violators of the list now that remind me how irritating these people can be. I haven't turned any of them in but have thought about it a couple of times.